

The First Research Course for Early Carrier Mental Health Specialists and Students

UNA Partnership is pleased to announce the First Research Course for Early Carrier Mental Health Specialists and Students.

The aim of the course is to provide a high-quality intensive training on the relevant elements of research including but not limited to: Designing a research project, starting research projects in busy clinical settings, research methods including most important principles of statistics, writing scientific papers and presenting scientific work. The course is designed to provide tutorials and to be a platform for continuous training and collaborative investigations.

THE COURSE WILL INCLUDE LECTURES AND INTERACTIVE SESSIONS BY THE FOLLOWING FACULTY MEMBERS:

- Prof. Norman Sartorius, President, Association for the Improvement of Mental Health Programmes, Switzerland
- Prof. Arnstein Mykletun, Senior researcher, Norwegian Institute of Public Health, Division of Mental Health, Norway
- Prof. Johannes Hebebrand, Editor-in-Chief, Journal of European Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany
- Prof. Stian Lydersen, Professor of Medical Statistics, Institute of Mental Health, Norwegian, University of Science and Technology (NTNU), Norway
- Dr. Bernhard Weidle, Associated Professor and Senior Physician, Institute of Mental Health, NTNU and St. Olav's Hospital, Norway
- Dr. Vlatka Boričević-Maršanić, Associated Professor and Director, Psychiatric Hospital for Children and Adolescents, Croatia
- Prof. Bennett Leventhal, Professor of Psychiatry, UCSF Medical Centre, USA

COURSE DIRECTORS:

- Prof. Irina Pinchuk (Ukrainian Research Institute of Social and Forensic Psychiatry and Drug Abuse of Ministry of health of Ukraine)
irina.pinchuk0311@gmail.com
- Prof. Norbert Skokauskas (Institute of Mental Health, NTNU, Norway)
norbert.skokauskas@ntnu.no

December 1-2, 2017
Kiev, Ukraine

How to take part? Please see information attached

The First Research Course for Early Career Mental Health Specialists and Students

December 1-2, 2017, Kiev, Ukraine

Important information:

1. The course is free and there is no registration fee.
2. The course will be conducted in English (with no translation to any other language).
3. Young psychiatrists, psychologists and allied mental health professionals are invited to apply for the course by filling in enclosed application form.
4. Medical students interested in mental health and psychology students are encouraged to apply too.
5. Application deadline is the 12th of November 2017. Limited spaces available, please apply early.
6. Priority will be given to young applicants who have not attended similar courses and who are thinking about doing PhD in the future.
7. It is envisioned that majority attendees will be from Ukraine, however a couple places are reserved for attendees from Armenia, Georgia, and Norway.
8. The course will be held at the Ukrainian Research Institute for Social and Forensic Psychiatry and Addiction Health of Ukraine in Kiev.
9. Each attendee will receive a certificate upon successful completion of the course.
10. For additional information please contact course directors. Emails are provided on the first page.